

Arizona Broadcasters Association

64th Annual Arizona Broadcasters Association Business Meeting Thursday, January 26, 2017 Phoenix, Arizona

President & CEO, Art Brooks called the 64th annual meeting of the Arizona Broadcasters Association to order at approximately 11:00 AM at Univision TV & Radio station.

Next was introduction of the 2017 ABA officers, directors & staff.

Next was the introduction of our special guest speaker, Arizona Governor Doug Ducey, after his remarks there was a Q & A opportunity from those present for the Governor. Afterwards Governor was thanked for his time to address TV & Radio executives.

Next was approval of minutes from the 2016 63rd annual meeting.

Next was presentation of the 2016 Annual Report to our membership. This included the first look at the 2016 Localism Survey Results and the list of 2016 filings before the FCC by ABA.

Next was a report on the "Hooked Rx: From prescription to addiction" program that aired January 10 on every TV station and 96 Radio stations. Along with the program was a 100-phone call center to offer help to those in need.

Next was a look at major 2017 ABA events such as the 13th annual AZ AMBER Alert Golf Classic May 5 at the Biltmore Golf Resort; Broadcasters Career Fairs in Phoenix May 11 and in Tucson September 7 & the 28th Hall of Fame luncheon October 12th at the Talking Stick Resort

Without any old or new business, the 2017 Annual Business Meeting was adjourned until the 65th annual meeting in 2018

Art Brooks, President & CEO
January 31, 2017